WEST SIDE ALLIANCE SC CAMP OF EXCELLENCE NEWS JULY 19, 2011

Brazil Loses Swagger; Uruguay Romps; USA Unscored On!

Pictured to the right are the 2010 Brazilians, confident, poised, and ready for the challenge. After first round heart ache set in for the 2011 Brazilians, losing super star Cane, just moments before kick-off, the team seems lost, unsure, and not quite so poised. Four straight losses will be a tough recovery road. Can Coach Paulo, in his 2nd World Cup tenure as coach, revitalize the Brazilians?

URUGUAY DOMINATES

It only takes one goal and solid defending, and Uruguay, who did not outscore an opponent by more than a goal all night stormed to an early first round lead. USA and Mexico were close behind w/ 8 points, while Spain stayed under the radar w/ 5 points.

MEXICO BULLDOGS???

WHAT???? The Mexican national team has taken the nickname Bulldogs? "Outrageous!" cried one supporter. "We should remove them from the tourney," claimed a FIFA official. "I'm changing loyalties to Antigua," claimed another! Unfortunately Antigua did not qualify. Dos Santos and Chicharito were not the combo strikers for this Bulldog team, but experts favor the Bulldog Tri-Colores just behind Uruguay for this year's top prize. Italians? We have not mentioned them. Hmm... Maybe they'll dawn some nice uniforms and give us something to write about?

UNIFORM CONTEST! Look closely and you'll see some very fine craftsmanship in the 2010 Dutch Uniforms. This year COE is sponsoring a Uniform Contest!

FIFA FAIR PLAY There was little controversy in the first round. All teams were still candidates for the FIFA Fair Play Award after one round of play. 2nd round,? We'll see.

WHERE ARE YOU ANTIGUA? Antigua did not qualify for this year's World Cup. However, Coach Alex will return for round 2 tonight. Which nation will he join?
